Visiting Just For You (JFY) Day Spa for a treatment was a heavenly experience. My lovely service provider, Brittany whisked me away to a cool dimly lit private room, perfect for slipping into relaxation mode. I was ready to soak up the Cozy Chai Back Relief service, which relieves stress and loosens tense muscles. As a writer, I spend my days hunched over the computer, and my muscles and body were overdue for this level of expert attention.

Brittany started the treatment with a sweet orange and clove salt scrub. My body went into full relaxation mode with the careful application of the delightful smelling exfoliant. Next was a soothing hot towel to wipe the exfoliant, with the best part yet to come. Brittany began painting on the nourishing deep sea mud mask infused with soothing chai spices that once again put my senses into pure bliss mode. While letting the mud mask set in and work its magic, I was delighted with a scalp and foot massage. Again, a hot towel was used to wipe the mask off, but the goodness did not end there. Next came an amazing massage using Lia Reese's Orange Dreamsicle Body Butter. I was at the peak of relaxation; with my skin hydrated and smelling like a summer dream, I was beyond grateful for my 60 minutes of feeling spoiled.

I headed into JFY's cozy post-treatment lounge for more relaxation; reality could wait for just a few more minutes. Enjoying my soothing entrance back into the real world, I couldn't be more thankful for my treatment, my moment of rejuvenation and the expert care of the JFY dream team! Thanks again ladies, I'm already looking forward for my next visit. ■

IMMERSE YOURSELF IN BEAUTY

AS EXPERIENCED BY JENNI LAWRENCE

Venturing into the Lia Reese shop after an amazing Cozy Chai Back Relief treatment in Just For You Day Spa, I immediately fell in love with the brightly lit room full of shelves, stocked full of pretty treats. Surrounded by shades of lipsticks, beautiful hues of blush, eyeshadow and body quenching products begging to be taken home, my dreams were realized!

After that heavenly treatment, I knew I needed to stock up on all things Orange Dreamsicle, including the body wash! Does life get much better than this? My summer visitors are certainly in for a sweet treat; I stocked up on enough products for myself and my guests. They need some Lia Reese in their lives!

I openly admit that I'm a complete eyebrow queen. Brow products are not one-size-fits-all, but thankfully Lia Reese has everyone covered with powder, liquid and pencil options. My pick? The Brow Pencil in Taupe to fill in my fine-but-full brows for a natural look.

Sandal season calls for perfectly painted toenails. I'm obsessed with Lia Reese's Rebel Lacquers, which are all cheekily named after towns and cities in Saskatchewan and Alberta and also make perfect gifts: "Every Rosetown Has Its Thorn" is a perfect classic red; "Ponoka Dot Bikini" is a sweet lilac-pink, and "I'm Just Warman Up" is a fun, sparkly nude.

Since we live in the shining city of Saskatoon, I'm religious about sunscreen. My combination skin loves the Clarifying Cream from Lia Reese Botanicals — a miracle worker for any discoloration you might have and a must-have in my beauty collection.

My biggest beauty recommendation? Head to the Lia Reese beauty boutique and immerse yourself in the amazing products and scents. Test your potential favourites in-store and ask the friendly staff about their latest cosmetic lines. I promise you won't leave disappointed or empty handed! ■
